

‘Rhapsody in Blue’
Jon Kimura Parker-Piano
Jens Lindemann-Trumpet
Canadian All-Star JazzPops Orchestra

Featuring Jens Lindemann and Jon Kimura Parker, both recipients of the Order of Canada, in a world premiere recording with jazz orchestra of Gershwin’s iconic ‘Rhapsody in Blue’, this album also includes music by Duke Ellington, Nat King Cole, Glenn Miller, Tommy Dorsey and others from the great Big Band era. With reimagined orchestrations by Grammy award winning arranger Matt Catingub, this All-Star band of the greatest Canadian jazz musicians also includes Robi Botos, Mike Downes, and Al Muirhead.

“Then is Now” also pays musical tribute to Oscar Peterson’s iconic ‘Hymn to Freedom’ as played by the late Senator Tommy Banks.

Recorded and filmed at Banff Centre, “Then is Now” is a celebration of legacy and how great music stands the test of time by being as relevant today as it was yesterday.
